

Over 70% of Tuck alumni attain a title like CEO, CFO, partner, founder, or president within 20 years of graduation.

Tuck Class of 2008 Profile

Great leaders come from diverse backgrounds. The class of 2008 includes not only professionals with extensive experience in business and finance but also individuals who have excelled as athletic champions, military officers, artists, nonprofit executives, engineers, entrepreneurs, and teachers. Each member of the class brings exceptional accomplishments and potential to the Tuck community.

ENROLLMENT

Target class size 240

DEMOGRAPHICS

Average age at matriculation 28
 Age range 24-38
 Students with partners 42%
 Students with children 10%
 Women 33%
 U.S. minorities 14%
 International students 35%
 Students born outside U.S.A. 36%
 Nationalities represented 30

UNDERGRADUATE EXPERIENCE

Top undergraduate majors
 Economics/finance 28%
 Humanities 20%
 Engineering/computer science 18%
 Math/science 15%
 Business 7%

Other 12%
 Undergraduate institutions represented 149
 Institutions most represented (3 or more students):
 Amherst, Brown, Colgate, Cornell, Dartmouth, Duke, Georgetown, Harvard, ITESM, Middlebury, Morehouse, Northwestern, Princeton, Seoul National, Stanford, Tufts, UC Berkeley, UCLA, U Oklahoma, U Pennsylvania, U Texas-Austin, U Tokyo, U Virginia, Vanderbilt, Yonsei U

Average GPA for U.S. students 3.4
 Students with advanced degrees 20%

PROFESSIONAL WORK EXPERIENCE

Full-time work experience 100%
 Average years of work experience 5
 Investment banking or private equity 24%
 Technology 16%
 Marketing, retail, consumer goods, or manufacturing 15%
 Government, military, nonprofit, or education 12%
 Consulting 11%
 Other financial services 6%
 Healthcare/pharma/biotech 6%
 Real estate, media, or entertainment 2%
 Other 9%

NATIONALITIES

U.S.A. and U.S. permanent residents 63%
 Asia and Oceania 10%
 S.E. Asia, Middle East, Africa, and Eastern Europe 10%
 Latin America and the Caribbean 8%
 Western Europe 6%
 Canada 2%

RESIDENCE

Students living in U.S.A.
 New England 29%
 New York City region 16%
 West 14%
 Mid-Atlantic 4%
 Midwest 3%
 South 2%
 Students living outside U.S.A. 32%

STANDARDIZED TESTS

GMAT
 Average score 710
 Admitted-student range 560-790
 TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language)
 Average score 277
 Admitted-student range 250-300

As of August 2006

© 2006 by the Trustees of Dartmouth College. All rights reserved.