

Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth

Faculty Search in Operations Management, Analytics and Management Science

The Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth invites applicants for faculty positions in Operations Management, Analytics, and Management Science. These full-time, tenure-track positions are potentially at any level, with a preference for the Assistant and untenured Associate level. The positions begin in the 2019–2020 academic year. Applicants must have a Ph.D. or be near completion of a doctoral degree.

We are interested in candidates who will produce research of excellent quality that will have a significant impact on the field. There must be evidence that the candidate can conduct research and teach at a high level. The school fosters a highly collegial culture that is intellectually stimulating and interdisciplinary, and we provide generous financial and logistical support for research and teaching.

Founded in 1900, the Tuck School is the first graduate school of management. Its two-year program has a total of approximately 550 students, most with employment experience. Tuck also offers various management development programs for top level managers with high potential. The Tuck faculty numbers 50 full-time positions as well as visiting lecturers, post-docs, and adjunct faculty in specialized fields.

Applicants should submit a vita, publications, working papers, a summary of teaching evaluations (if available), and three letters of reference by December 1, 2018. Candidates attending the INFORMS Annual Conference in Phoenix are encouraged to complete as much of their application as possible by October 22, 2018. All materials should be submitted to: <http://apply.interfolio.com/52634>

Dartmouth is an equal opportunity/ affirmative action employer with a strong commitment to diversity. In that spirit, we are particularly interested in receiving applications from a broad spectrum of people, including women, persons of color, persons with disabilities, veterans or any other legally protected group.