

Partner with Tuck

Tuck Associates Corporate Partners Program

Tuck Corporate Partners

enjoy a valuable connection to the expert faculty and exceptional MBA students of the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth, one of the world's leading business schools.

Founded in 1900 as the first graduate school of management, Tuck is committed to preparing students for a global career of business leadership and to supporting a faculty of acknowledged thought leaders who are also outstanding teachers.

^

Shoei Utsuda, chairman of Mitsui & Co., addresses a joint session of Tuck courses geared toward management and leadership.

Priority Access

As a Tuck Corporate Partner, you will receive priority access to a world-class faculty of pioneering researchers whose scholarly work explores global business challenges and trends. Corporate Partners also have early access to Tuck's recruiting calendar and benefit from the personal attention of our career development professionals.

Higher Learning

Partner with Tuck and develop a custom executive education program for your organization to address specific corporate issues and cultivate new ideas. Or collaborate with one of Tuck's eight centers and initiatives and experience our areas of excellence up close:

- Center for Business and Society
- Center for International Business
- Center for Leadership
- Center for Private Equity and Entrepreneurship
- Glassmeyer/McNamee Center for Digital Strategies
- Entrepreneurship Initiative
- Healthcare Initiative
- Lindenauer Center for Corporate Governance

Anne Sullivan T'95, vice president of corporate development for Sunovion Pharmaceuticals, speaks to MBA students in Tuck's Business of Health Care course. Peter Foyston T'90, CEO of Campbell Swire China, leads students in a roundtable discussion.

Our Students, Your Talent

Tuck Corporate Partners have many ways to work with students in addition to recruiting.

Projects

- Hire a student consulting team through the Tuck Global Consultancy program
- Work with a student or student team and faculty adviser on an independent-study course project or First-Year Project

Curriculum Enrichment

- Collaborate with students and faculty on a case study
- Be a guest speaker in a course specifically related to your area of expertise

Co-Curricular Activities

- Participate in a student-led conference on topics including sustainability and women in business

Tuck Corporate Support

Tuck Corporate Partners represent diverse global industries and philanthropic missions, from finance and consulting to health care, technology, and energy. With annual support of at least $5,000, you will receive premier visibility on the Tuck campus and in our communications with students and prospective students. And with personal attention from Tuck's development office, Tuck Corporate Partners enjoy the valuable benefit of an individualized engagement strategy.

Contact Us

Corporate Partners Office: john.w.torget@tuck.dartmouth.edu www.tuck.dartmouth.edu and www.tuck.dartmouth.edu/partners/

Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth

100 Tuck Hall
Hanover, NH 03755-9000